Curtis & Co., of Norfolk, who will erect the Swansboro building at a cost of $20,000. The heating contract was let to American Heating Company, of Richmond, who will do this work in both structures.

The sites for the buildings will be laid off and staked to-day. The foundations will be dug at once, and as much preliminary work as possible finished before spring. No brick work will be attempted during the winter. It is the intention of the school trustees to have the buildings ready for occupancy at the beginning of the gext school year.

Advocates of Courthouse Removal Hold Meeting in Oak Grove.

Interesting figures showing the approximate increase in the county levy should the voters of Chesterfield County decide favorable on the proposition to move the county seat to Chester was presented last night by advocates of the measure at a meeting held last night at the Oak Grove School. Antis impassable condition of the streets many persons were deterred from attending the meeting. As it was the building was packed to suffication and another meeting will be arranged in order that both sides can state their views.

Sunday School—A. G. Frostick, superintendent; E. D. Wilkinson, assistant superintendent; Harold Branch, secretary and treasurer; W. J. Morrissette.

From telegrams and letters read to the jury, the government set forth this part of its contention as follows:

Four months before the Los Angeles Times building was blown up, Eugene A. Clancy, a labor leader in San Francisco, who had been instructed to investigate labor conditions in Los Angeles, telegraphed to John J. McNamara, in Indianapolis, "The fight is on in Los Angeles. We are going to win. Send Heckim at once."

the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, wired Claney: "Better get a man in Los Angeles to do the work. Hockin too busy in the East."

Clancy went to Seattle, and on August 16, 1910, H. W. Polhman, a labor leader there, wrote J. J. McNamara: "Clancy met his man here after waiting a week for him. I think I inderstand the situation."

James B. McNamara was then in Seattle, and the government charges that Clancy met him there. On August 11, the office building under construction in Seattle was blown up.

At this time, $1,000 was voted by the Iron Workers' Union executive board to the California Building Trades Council for use in promoting the union at Los Angeles. A receipt for the amount, signed by Olaf A. Tvettmee, assertary of the council, was preduced. The government contends that the correspondence shows that McNamara's mission to the Pacific coast was known to Clancy, Tvettmee and to J. E. Municety, Sait Lake City, who is charged with harboring the dynamiter for two weeks after the explosion.

Testimeny that dynamite was taken.

Testimony that dynamite was taken to the iron workers' headquarters in Indianapolis to within a few weeks before the McNamaras were arrested was given by Martin J. Hyland. Chief of Pelice of Indianapolis. He identified newspapers which had been wrapped about four packages of dynamite. They were newspapers from Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, the latest being dated April 3, 1911.

day by Major Louis Werner, the Richmond department was asked to correct the report that William H. Hudself agins, of Danville, was being held in the City Jail for the police of that City.

A man giving test name was arrested Tuesday by Officers Sharp and Baugham. He was thought to be a man, who under the name of Turner, robbed a Danvillite of a large sum of money. When searched he had $400 in his pockets. The Danville police were notified of the capture. The real Hudgins is at home, the sharper evidently attempting to get by with the use of a borrowed name.
